

Hello fellow yard enthusiasts;

We are anticipating the visit to Dave Rapps yard in Starlight, Pa. 18461 477 Autumn Leaves Rd. I talked to him this morning, seems to be a good guy. No problem with our group for a visit. I said we could be there around 8AM-8:30. I scheduled us for traditionally Black Friday, (November 27) He said to bring boots if it's been wet. It sounds like he will ride us up to the main yard. Said it's a good walk. The pictures are pretty good. Stated 800 cars. He also has some buildings full of parts also. Those are miniature horses. This is just a few of the pics I received from some folks that were there last month. Looking forward to this. Sure the stuff is rusty. But I'm sure there is still a few items to pick. I'm looking forward to seeing everybody after a sparse event year. No breakfast stop this year due to the restraints that may or may not still be in force. I hope to see all of you there. Please be available early on for the photo op.
